now has nearly $4 billion of plan assets in its care. “We believe in doing the right thing and doing it right,” Mendenhall explains. “Transparency, responsibility, and integrity move us forward every day.”

While helping clients build financial security, PCI’s team is involved with its community. PCI is a sponsor of the Downtown Springfield Association and supports neighboring events and businesses, looking to partner with small, local enterprises and vendors rather than big box stores. The company also links to local universities for internships and career opportunities. The PCI team also participates in hands-on events like United Way’s Day of Caring. “Serving people is a very important part of our business,” adds HR Specialist Nichole Patterson.

Improving Financial Security, the Right Way

At Pension Consultants, Inc. (PCI), the mission is clear: improve the financial security of American workers. PCI is a plan advisor, helping fiduciary committees that offer employees retirement plans, including 401(k) and 403(b) plans. For PCI, the way to its goal is a focus on delivering an investment lineup that performs well, seeing that fees paid by the plan are low, and helping employees be on track to retire. And it’s a team effort. “Everyone here contributes to our mission,” says Executive Director Cody Mendenhall, CFP®.

This year, PCI celebrates 25 years of dedication to its purpose. Core values drive the company, which
